Chapter 1 by melike ekiz

Once upon a time in Sugarland. There is a little girl called Ice cream Princess. She doesn't have any friend except from her lovely unicorn Buttercup. Everybody finds hers weird because of her passion about discovering other worlds. One day Ice cream Princess and Buttercup decided to leave the country in pursuit of realizing their dreams. They take some food with a six-pack of Heineken in an Esky. Ice Cream Princess lashed the Esky and food satchel to Buttercup's haunches with bungee cords, careful to avoid the naughty bits. And then they were off. Off to discover other worlds. It didn't take long before they reached the country's border and were required to fill out an obscene amount of paperwork in triplicate. So much so, that the checkpoint closed before all forms were completed, which forced Ice Cream Princess and Buttercup to spend a night at the Premier Border Inn. At dusk, the two sat on their respective beds and cracked open a bottle of Heineken while nibbling from the cheese and sausage taken from the satchel. Suddenly, there was a sharp rap at the door.
